A few blocks away you'll find a stellar happy hour at the Radisson's FireLake. From 4–6:30 p.m. on your workweek, munch on phenomenal (and phenomenally cheap) appetizers while you have a stemmed glass or three from the extensive wine list. Across the river, the über-classic wood-paneled bar of the St. Paul Grill at the Saint Paul Hotel is a hard-liquor fiend's dream with enough rare cognacs, scotches, ports and whiskeys to knock your socks off. Oh hell, just go ahead and grab a room and stay the night.
